

Alternative Stories

(Main Characters for each group)

Character One: "Spy"

- Group: "Nation 3" - Government
- Goal: Gather information from "Nation 1" about a planned war against "Nation 2".
- Setting:
 - Part of the upper class society
 - Inside the government of "Nation 1"
 - Ministry of Defense (Military Affairs)
- Antagonist:
 - Not an "actual antagonist" in the sense of one opposing person
 - Surrounded by "enemies"
 - His identity must stay hidden
- Background:
 - Spy from "Nation 3" replaces a diplomat from "Nation 1", taking his identity and travelling back to "Nation 1"
 - After some time switches from being a diplomat to being a member of the Ministry of Defense
 - Periodically sends information back to "Nation 3"
- Synopsis:
 - The war against "Nation 2" is closing in, the spy is still relaying information to "Nation 3"
 - "Nation 1" is trying to find their information leak among their ranks, getting closer and closer to the spy
 - The spy tries to stay hidden while obtaining the plans about a surprise attack on "Nation 2"
 - Finally he tries to evade detection while safely leaving the country

Character Two: "Soldier"

- Group: "Nation 4" - Army
- Goal: Survive and return home
- Setting:
 - War between "Nation 1" and "Nation 4"
- Antagonist: "Nation 1" - Army
- Background
 - War efforts of "Nation 4" are supported by "Nation 3"
 - "Nation 3" specifically the "Nation 3"'s pharmaceutical mega-corporation(PMC) uses "Nation 4" for experiments
 - "Nation 3"'s PMC uses soldiers that were injured as test subjects during the war
 - The main character is a regular person conscripted to the army/war.
- Synopsis:
 - Follows the story of a regular person drafted into the army
 - He slowly rises through the ranks after multiple combat encounters until he's in charge of a small troop of soldiers
 - He discovers what "Nation 3"'s PMC is doing during the war, experimenting on his fellow soldiers either killing them or enhancing them in the process
 - He realises that despite the atrocities committed this way that they are starting to win this war thus accepting them and complying
 - During this time he himself and his troop are experimented on
 - On what turns out to be that last day of war his team is sent to take over the last foothold of "Nation 1" in the territory of "Nation 4"
 - They infiltrate the base, taking it over and defending it long enough for reinforcements to arrive but ultimately they all succumb to their wounds

Character Three: "Scientist"

- Group:
 - "Nation 3" - Pharmaceutical Mega-Corporation
 - "Founders of the PMCs"
- Goal:
 - Create a cure-all
 - Originally to save his mentor and father-figure
 - Now in grief over his death
- Setting:
 - "Nation 2" - PMC(First)
 - "Nation 3" - PMC(Later)
- Antagonist:
 - Mentor's sickness(first)
 - Leader of "Nation 1" - PMC and "Nation 2" - PMC (later)
- Background/Synopsis
 - Came from an orphanage from "Nation 2" alongside the Leader of "Nation 1" - PMC (SP)
 - Both were adopted by their "father" and then later their mentor and founder of the original PMC (V) originating from "Nation 2"
 - Grew up alongside SP and the legitimate son of V (SV)
 - All three of them turn into scientists and leaders/integral members of the PMC
 - V is dying from an incurable disease, they all split up into different branches in the different nations to both help them in their development and to find a cure for their father's disease.
 - The main character goes to "Nation 3", SP goes to "Nation 1" and SV stays in "Nation 2" with his father
 - Everybody works on their respective projects/goals
 - V tragically dies by succumbing to his sickness and SV takes over as the new leader of the PMC
 - They all blame each other for not trying hard enough to save their father, creating a rift between them especially SP and the main character
 - Both SP and the main character split up from the PMC creating their own version
 - Ending with a shattered family (that starts the main conflict of the story world)